SCNA OBJECTIVE

SCNA is dedicated to the promotion and advancement of numismatics in all its dimensions...convinced that the hobby has great potential for enriching lives of those who earnestly seek its gifts. Our principal means for this is the SCANNER, the official publication, sponsored awards which seek to promote and reward excellence in many areas of hobby activity; and the annual Convention...which provides without charge to the collector, investor and general public...South Carolina's best program of numismatic education and services and the finest opportunity for buying and selling numismatic items.

EDITOR'S NOTE

BY: ERIK S. LARSEN

Well greetings again fellow numismatists! I cannot believe that we already have one year in the books for me as the Editor of the SCanner and once again I must thank all those who have offered articles and suggestions on how to improve the publication. Furthermore thank you to the SCNA member club leaders for sending in club news, leadership updates and meeting information—you have made my job quite easy!

There have been quite a few happenings since the fall issue of the SCanner. First, the ANA held an historic election for the Board of Directors and an entire new slate of board members have been installed and they subsequently removed its Executive Director. Silver, gold and platinum have risen to record levels and the 35th SCNA Convention was held at the Embassy Suites in Greenville. We have also seen new presidential dollars rolled out to mixed reviews and now we enter into the final year of the state quarters program, only to get another year for all U.S. territories and the District of Columbia. Not to worry however, the US Mint is promising updated cent designs for 2009.

In statewide news in numismatics, a new law was passed by the South Carolina State House of Representatives and ratified by the State Senate to waive all taxes on numismatic items, bullion and paper money. The bill was sponsored by State Representative Ted Martin Vick of Chesterfield County. The bill was vetoed by Governor Mark Sanford but was overridden by both the House and Senate. I have been trying to contact Representative Vick for comments or an interview for the SCanner but so far have been unsuccessful. Stay tuned to future editions for a progress report on this important legislation. Jim Barry was elected as the new President of the SCNA after serving several years on the Board of Directors. The updated Board and officer list is located on page 2 of the SCanner. I also am pleased to announce a new ad exchange agreement with the Georgia Numismatic Association (GNA). The GNA will and SCNA will exchange show ads similarly as SCNA currently does with the NCNA.

This issue of the SCanner features an article on the Lodz Ghetto written by frequent contributor Bill Myers. If you have written (or know of) any interesting articles in the world of numismatics, please feel free to forward them to the editor for publication.

Always remember to feel free to send your comments, ideas, articles, and feedback to me at Larsen770@aol.com or mail to P.O. Box 505, Charleston, SC 29402-0505. If your local club has news or is having a show and you want to increase publicity, please send me the information and we will publish it here!

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Greetings to SCNA Members:

As your new president I have a few introductory comments. Firstly I would like to thank all those who supported SCNA's 35th Convention. It was certainly one of our most successful recent events. Along that same line, I would like to thank Bob Ross for his extremely fine exhibit in celebration of our thirty-five years. I wish more of you could have seen this outstanding exhibit!

Secondly, the SCNA Board would like to reach out to all member clubs with your thoughts on how to make our organization more responsive to you and your collector members. To continue to grow our organization we are desirous of your input as we move forward further into the 21st Century. Please feel free to contact me or a board member with your ideas.

My third thought regards bringing more young people into our great hobby. While the market place has expanded in recent years into an investment driven hobby, there is certainly plenty of room for the novice collector among our young to encourage them in partaking of the joys of collecting and learning about the history of our country's monetary history.

I would like to share something of my own collecting history. While my current interests have to do with collecting coins from antiquity, I still enjoy United States type coins from 19th and early 20th Century. Our recent show in Greenville enabled me to add a lovely $2 ½ Liberty gold piece to my collection. As I mentioned earlier, this year's convention was a fine show and I hope more of you will attend next year's show. We will be at a new venue, the Carolina First Center, formerly the Palmetto Expo Center.

Additionally, I would like to congratulate Board Member, Hugh Shull, for receiving the Professional Currency Dealer Association's 2007 literary award for his Guide Book of Southern States Currency.

In closing, I wish all of you a great year ahead and hope to meet many of you at one of the many local shows across our great state.

Enjoy Collecting.

Jim Barry

Note from the Editor:

Please send any address and/or name corrections to the SCNA Secretary, Mr. Pascal Brock, P.O. Box 693, Lugoff, SC 29078. Return postage and remailing of the SCanner is cost prohibitive. The SCNA appreciates your cooperation in keeping our address files up-to-date. Thank you.

Members: The SCanner is always looking for numismatic articles. They can be on coins, paper money, tokens, elongated coins or medals. Please email or snail mail them to me at Larsen770@aol.com or 14 Gadsden Street, Charleston, SC 29401. They will be published as space is available.

Advertising Policy: The policy is that an advertisement will run for three (3) issues. The only changes for these issues will be to change the telephone number, address or email address.

Advertisements are important to us in order to defray the costs of producing and mailing the SCanner. The SCNA and the advertising dealers would appreciate your mentioning to them having seen their ad in this journal.

Hugh Shull wins the PCDA Literary Award

Former SCNA president, current Historian Hugh Shull won the PCDA Literary Award for his book Guide Book of Southern States Currency. It was awarded Nov. 10 at the PCDA convention in St. Louis, Mo.

This award is meant to recognize a significant work, or body of work, published during the course of the year regarding the subject of paper money and related topics. It may include such publications as books, articles appearing in numismatic periodicals, video productions, and others. PCDA feels a responsibility to publicly acknowledge these works and their authors as part of its ongoing commitment to providing educational and informational tools to collectors and the public at large.

In most cases these works are labors of love and an effort on the part of the authors to freely share their knowledge and information with others.

Congratulations Hugh!

SCNA 35TH ANNUAL CONVENTION WRAP-UP

BY: ROBERT W. ROSS III

35th Anniversary Convention a Historic Event

Our 35th convention featured another sold out bourse, a very good crowd of buyers, and informative educational programs on a beautiful fall weekend. Tony Chibbaro did another outstanding job as Bourse Chairman. This is the hardest and most time consuming job in putting on a convention, and may be the least appreciated, since so much work goes on behind the scenes. Tony also did a great job at setting up the show along with some help from Hugh Shull and myself. I was there early which gave me a chance to witness all of the activity.

Everyone involved seems to really like the Embassy Suites that had been our home for the last three years. This will change next year as the show moves to the Carolina First Center just off Pleasantburg Drive. This new location will have the advantage of providing more bourse space. Actually this new venue is not new to us. The building was formally known as the Palmetto Expo Center and is where we held our 2000 and 2001 conventions.

My congratulations go out to Bill Myers who won Best of Show with his excellent exhibit on Counterfeit Japanese Invasion Money of the Philippines, and then also garnered the South Carolina Numismatist of the Year Award. I would also like to commend Pascal Brock for not only being our longest serving secretary (now beginning his 19th year), but his faithfulness at manning the registration table every day at our shows for many years.

At our 15th anniversary show in 1987, I displayed a five case exhibit of memorabilia items dating from and original copy of the SCNA organizational letter of November, 1972. At our 25th and 30th anniversary conventions, I added additional items covering the ensuing fifteen years. So this year I added another five years of recollection items and presented seven cases to honor our 35th anniversary.

All during the show, but especially during setup of the exhibit, it was great fun reliving many memories with such people as Hugh Shull, Austin Sheheen, and Jack Crumley. It was also an opportunity to meet some new folks such as dealer Mark Thompson, who spent a long time talking with me. People's names who have contributed items and/or information in the past were included in the exhibit, but Pascal Brock and Tony Chibbaro have been particularly helpful over the past five years.

Congratulations to all of the winners and all of the people who made this show a success. As a final thought, this was surely the first SCNA Convention where LoRan Ross was not present, and he was missed by many people there. We hope to see him back next year.

LODZ GHETTO

BY: BILL MYERS

Currency is more than a medium of exchange, it often has a story to tell. It can commemorate or represent people, places and events in history. But unfortunately, not all of the stories are proud moments for mankind.

On September 1, 1939 Hitler launched an attack against Poland and the country fell three weeks later. On November 7, 1939 the city of Lodz was incorporated into the Third Reich and its name changed to Litzmannstadt (Litzmann's city) in honor of German World War I General Karl Litzmann, who died trying to conquer Lodz in 1915.

Lodz was the second the largest Jewish community in Europe, the largest community being in Warsaw. A ghetto was established in a 4.3 square kilometer area in the northern section of the city and 230,000 Jews were moved in and the area was sealed off on May 1, 1940. Mordekchai Chaim Rumkowski was appointed as the Judenälteste (Elder of the Jews) and set up his own bureaucracy. The Germans mandated that the Jews pay for their own food, security, sewage removal and other expenses. Rumkowski arranged to set up factories within the ghettos and in exchange for the final products the Germans would pay the Jews in food, which Rumkowski controlled and rationed. Those who worked were issued ghetto money and they could purchase their rations from the ghetto stores. The ghetto money was nicknamed "Rumkies" after Rumkowski, whose signature appears on the face of the notes. Outside the ghetto the money was worthless.

The Nazis declared it illegal for ghetto residents to possess hard currency, so they were forced to exchange their German and Polish currency for quittungen (currency receipts). These were to function as currency, and were issued in values of 50 pfennig and 1, 2, 5, 10, 20 and 50 mark. The face reads "Quittung Über (denomination), Der Aelteste der Juden in Litzmannstadt, M. Rumkowski, Litzmannstadt, den 15 Mai 1940". This translates to "Receipt for (denomination), the Chief Elder of the Jews in Litzmannstadt, May 15, 1940." The back states the denomination, with a warning against counterfeiting. Both sides have a background mesh pattern that is actually a series of Stars of David. They were printed by the Manitius Printing House.

Coins were also issued. In 1942, 5 and 10 pfennig trial patterns and a 10 pfennig coin were produced in magnesium. In 1943, 5, 10 and 20 mark coins were issued in aluminum and 5 and 10 mark in magnesium as well.

The magnesium used to produce the coins was manufactured from pieces of downed Allied aircraft. The obverse of the mark coins have a Star of

David and the word “GETTO”, surrounded with a double-lined circle with six interspersed Stars of David and the date 1943. The reverse states “DER AELESTE DER JUDEN/ IN LITZMANNSTADT”. The denomination is in the center, with a banner running across it stating “QUITTUNG UBER”.

In 1941 25,000 Jews and gypsies from other areas were moved into the ghetto. Also in 1941 deportations were started from Lodz to the Chelmo death camp. The deportations to Chelmo continued until 1944 when the Soviets were closing in on Chelmo. Most of the remaining inhabitants, including Rumkowski, were then sent to Auschwitz death camp. Some workers were kept in the ghetto to confiscate any remaining material and valuables. They were rescued by the Red Army in 1945. The reports list from anywhere from 877 to 7,000 survivors from the Lodz ghetto but 220,000 to 250,000 perished.

The Camden Coin Club would like to thank the dealers and guest who participated in our previous shows. The success of the 2007 shows has made it possible for the Club to donate numismatic reference books the Kershaw County Library and all middle and high school libraries in the county.

The Camden Coin Club's fall coin show will be held on September 20, 2008. For information about the Camden Coin Clubs coin shows contact LoRan Ross at 803-432-0072.

STEPHEN JAMES CRSA COIN CLUB (AIKEN)

Our club held its one day show in Aiken on September 15. The show was a great success. The 2008 show will be held on September 13 at the same venue, the Odell Weeks Activity Center on Whiskey Road.

Congratulations to William Myers, a club member, who received SCNA's 2007 "Most Outstanding Numismatist of the Year Award" at the SCNA Convention held the end of October. Bill also presented a program on Military Tokens - AAFES POGS at the convention and won first place for his exhibit, "Counterfeit Japanese Invasion Money of the Philippines" in the senior competition. As reported in the August Scanner, Bill has just returned from a year in Iraq. He gave a presentation at the September and November club meetings on "Numismatics in Iraq".

The club's annual holiday dinner was celebrated December 6 at EeJays Restaurant in Aiken. Please visit our website: www.sjcsracc.org.

MYRTLE BEACH COIN CLUB

The Myrtle Beach Coin Club has reduced our meetings from 2 per month to 1 (due to low turnout). We now meet the first Tues. of each month--still at the Socastee Library. Turnout is still small--7 or 8 is a good "crowd". We continue to have Themes, pass around coins to discuss, and talk about news in the hobby. Club leader Ernie Turnes will be giving a talk in March on coin collecting to a local antiques collectors club, with some prepared remarks and Q&A.

The Myrtle Beach Coin Club has no officers as such, but Ernie Turnes serves as the "front man" (running meetings, advertisements, reserving meeting rooms, etc). He can be contacted at evturnes@juno.com.

MIDLANDS COIN CLUB

The Midlands Coin Club has a new bourse committee. Michael Teague has stepped down as bourse chairman due to other commitments (he will continue as treasurer, though). New bourse committee will be headed up by Ralph Ford and assisted by Greg Stowers and Bill Malinowski.

The club is preparing an exhibit to be placed in the Lexington County Library (St. Andrews Road branch in Irmo). Also, club member Ralph Mulkins recently gave a presentation to a boy scout troop so that they could prepare for their coin-collecting merit badges.

The recent club show was a success. About 200 people attended the show at the American Legion Hall on Pickens Street. There were 28 dealer tables. Gold and silver prices on the rise contributed to the business that was done at the show.

CSA & OBSOLETE NOTES ARE MY BUSINESS!!

I have been a full-time dealer in Confederate and obsolete currency for over 30 years. I've helped many collectors assemble complete CSA type sets as well as find rare varieties. I've also helped hundreds of collectors with their obsolete note interests from rare to common. My catalogs are well known in both the dealer and collector fields for their reference value. If you are a serious collector of CSA notes, bonds or obsolete bank notes, I can offer you the following:

1. Thousands of bank notes in the Confederate and obsolete areas.
2. Accurate descriptions, grading and fair prices.
3. Reliable dealings with prompt and friendly service.
4. The knowledge and research capabilities to properly attribute these notes.
5. A want list service that has helped many find notes which they could not locate.
6. Top prices when buying one note or an entire collection. If you are selling, I want to buy your notes!
7. The respect and integrity of dealings that are well known in the hobby.
8. Representation to bid for clients at major auctions.
9. Paying finder's fees on collections referred to me.
10. Appraisal services for reasonable fees.
11. Institutional and museum services for note authentication and valuations.
12. Strong cash decisions and immediate payment for your material.

If you collect, I offer my latest edition 60 page catalog for $5.00, refundable on first order. It features one of the largest CSA note inventories available, an extensive obsolete and scrip section, uncut sheets of notes, U.S. fractional notes, a Continental and colonial section and a reference book section. Whether you are buying or selling, I would be pleased to have you contact me.
