SCNA OBJECTIVE

SCNA is dedicated to the promotion and advancement of numismatics in all its dimensions...convinced that the hobby has great potential for enriching lives of those who earnestly seek its gifts. Our principal means for this is the SCANNER, the official publication, sponsored awards which seek to promote and reward excellence in many areas of hobby activity; and the annual Convention...which provides without charge to the collector, investor and general public...South Carolina's best program of numismatic education and services and the finest opportunity for buying and selling numismatic items.

Note from the Editor:

Changes/Corrections: Please send any address and/or name corrections to the SCNA Secretary: Pascal Brock, P. O. Box 693, Lugoff, SC, 29078 or PSBROCK@TRUVISTA.NET. Return postage and re-mailing of the SCanner is cost prohibitive. The SCNA appreciates your cooperation in keeping our address files up-to-date. Thank you.

Submissions: The SCanner is always looking for numismatic articles. They can be on coins, paper money, tokens, elongated coins, medals, etc. Please e-mail them to me, Gregory Stowers, at GSSTOWERS@MSN.COM or 715 Knollwood Drive, Columbia, SC 29209. They will be published as space is available.

Advertising Policy: The policy is that an advertisement will run for three (3) issues. The only changes for these issues will be to change the telephone number, address or e-mail address.

Advertisements are important to us in order to defray the costs of producing and mailing the SCanner. The SCNA and the advertising dealers would appreciate your mentioning to them having seen their ad in this journal.

EDITOR'S COMMENTS

A NEW EDITOR IS STILL NEEDED FOR THE SCANNER. Anyone interested in the job should contact me or any SCNA Officer.

When you find something wrong or need to make updates, please let me know. A contact to my e-mail is the best way to get the information to me. Kathy Leaphart serves as the associate editor for advertising. Anyone interested in placing an ad in the SCanner can contact Kathy at P.O. Box 280551, Columbia, SC 29228 or SKLEAPHART@YAHOO.COM.

To all the SCNA member club leaders: remember to send in club news, leadership updates, meeting information, and club show updates. An annual club report, even if there are no changes, would be helpful.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Greetings to SCNA Members!

Boy, is time flying! SCNA is currently sending out membership renewals to the members. If you have not already sent in your renewal please do it today. Please include your e-mail address on the membership form. To our many new Young Numismatists: your continued membership is only one dollar a year. This is a great deal and we hope you continue your membership.

Speaking of membership dues, the SCNA Board has voted to raise the life membership fee from $150 to $200 effective January 1, 2012. If you are not already a life member now is a great time to upgrade before the cost goes up. Regular annual membership fees remain the same for now- $10 for adults, $1 for youth.

There are still tables available for the 2011 Convention but they are going fast. Even with an uncertain economy, a sell-out is expected again this year. For more information contact Tony Chibbaro, the Bourse Chairperson.

Tickets for the SCNA fundraiser are now available. Each ticket is a $10 donation and there are only 400 tickets available. The prizes are gold and silver coins. Tickets are available from any SCNA officers and the drawing will be held during the Convention in October.

I look forward to seeing you at one of the great shows around the state or at the Convention.

Greg Stowers
President, SCNA

The SC Dept. of Archives & History Obsolete Note Auction

A sealed bid auction of Civil War Era, Bank of the State of South Carolina Notes has just been announced for May, 2011.

The Bank of the State of South Carolina was chartered in 1812 with the assets of the state and operated as the state Treasury. After the Civil War the bank joined in defeat and was formally closed during 1869. Bills issued before December 20, 1860 were deemed to be legitimate by the Reconstruction government and were exchanged for twenty year state bonds and those issued later during Confederacy were considered worthless. However, with the shift in governmental control back to South Carolina, an act was passed in December of 1879 that allowed for any of the bank's bills to be redeemed for 50% of the value payable in bonds.

Beginning in February 1880 the notes were turned in and either ink cancelled or cut cancelled, bundled and sealed and set aside for destruction. The final destruction never took place and although we may never know why, we assume it was one of those tasks that was put off until later and then forgotten about.

The boxes were stored with the State Treasurer's storage area in the state house and when rediscovered in the late 1950s concern over theft prompted transfer to the State Archives in 1961. It is estimated that this group of notes numbers over a million items and occupies approximately 40 cubic feet of stack storage space.

In 1991 the legislature added a proviso to the appropriations act that allows for the sales of these notes at public auction. Over the years, there have been several attempts at developing a solution to this overwhelming project and in August 2007, Dr. Jack Meyer volunteered to start tackling the notes one bundle at a time. Since then, many volunteers and staff members have worked to sort the currency.

Complete sets of the notes and sheets have been put aside as specimen notes for the Archives, State Museum, and other repositories to retain for reference and exhibit purposes with the remainder being sold at public auction in small groupings. As Dr. Meyer predicted, there has been little disruption of the collector's market or negative publicity. "By releasing the notes a significant amount of funding could be realized for...more pressing [preservation] needs...." The alternative is to destroy the notes except for the specimen sets and as Dr. Meyer likes to point out, the Dept. would literally be throwing money away.

By auctioning these notes, the Archives has been able to supplement its dwindling budget, and support collection preservation and access through purchasing storage equipment, supplies, and maintaining the online catalogs and indexes.

For details about this opportunity to own a piece of South Carolina history including bid instructions, lots, and lot viewing opportunities, check the SC Dept. of Archives web page: <http://scdah.sc.gov> or contact Heather South: 803-896-6112, south@scdah.state.sc.us.

Hobbyist Leads Coin Courses

On Feb. 16, 2011, Jim Barry completed teaching a four-week course titled "The History and Coinage of Ancient Greece."

The course was among those offered by the University of South Carolina Aiken's Life Long Learning Program. It is the third one Barry had taught in the program.

Barry is a life member of the American Numismatic Association, past president of the South Carolina Numismatic Association (SCNA), past vice president and founding member of Stephen James CSRA Coin Club of Aiken, SC, and a member of the lecturer's bureau for the SCNA.

Repeal of 1099 Reporting Pending?

Did you know that the National Health Care Law contains a little known requirement for businesses to report purchases over $600 during a year's time? This reporting requirement extends all the way to the numismatic community and its dealers. Many have expressed strong concern about the new extensive paperwork load required to comply with the provision by small businesses.

In Feb. the Senate voted 81-17 to repeal the 1099 provision and pay for the cost by directing the Office of Management and Budget to rescind unobligated federal funds. House Republicans would not accept the Senate effort.

The U.S. House of Representatives voted March 3 to repeal the widely unpopular 1099 reporting requirement. Though the measure passed 314-112, it is unlikely to find much support in the Senate, according to Nicholas Pyle, Coordinator of Numismatists United for Political Action.

The House and Senate have already voted several times to repeal the bill, but neither chamber has been able to find a mutually acceptable way to cover the lost revenue, said Pyle, whose group has been working to repeal the measure.

Although businesses don't have to fill out actual 1099 tax forms until 2013, they will have to get ready to track all purchases over $600 per person/business to comply with the reporting requirement.

House Majority leader Eric Cantor, R-VA, said that the next step will have to be negotiation. "We'll have to see where the differences lie between the two bills," Cantor said. "Hopefully we can get this to the President's desk as quick as possible."

Stay tuned.

2011 5-Ounce ATB Coin on Sale in April

Have you bought your “silver hockey puck” yet?

The Gettysburg design will be the first of the 2011 America the Beautiful (ATB) 5-ounce coins to be sold to the Mint’s Authorized Purchaser (AP) network in late April, the Mint has announced.

The Mint has 125,000 of the coins produced and ready to go to the Philadelphia Mint, according to acting Mint Director, Richard Peterson.

The five 2011 ATB bullion coins will be offered one at a time in sequence unlike the 2010 coins, which were sold as part of 33,000 five-coin sets.

Rules imposed on the AP’s to ensure fair distribution for the 2010 sets will not apply to the 2011 ATB sales, though the Mint plans to allocate the coins evenly to the AP’s that want to sell them to their usual bullion coin distribution channels.

The Mint is also giving the AP’s the chance to escape the distribution rules for the 2010 coins. These rules led to complicated, confusing and questionable methods of sales to the public.

Once the AP has certified to the Mint in writing on its letterhead that it has sold all of its share of the 33,000 sets sold by the Mint last year, it will be free to enter the secondary market to buy additional supplies in numbers and at prices that are not subject to Mint scrutiny or control. This certification also is a required step for the AP’s to participate in the 2011 program.

Availability for the numismatic version of the 2010 set has not yet been determined. The Mint has 27,000 sets of these that it will sell directly to collectors through its website and telephone order numbers.

The 125,000 number is likely to apply to all five designs this year, Peterson revealed, though the numbers could be raised depending on the availability of blanks and public demand.

Settlement Reached in Cipoletti Case

On Feb. 23, as trial was expected to begin in Colorado, a settlement was reached between former ANA Executive Director Christopher Cipoletti and the ANA Board of Governors, which fired him in 2007. The settlement included a confidential payment of money by Cipoletti to the ANA.

“I’m pleased to report that after nearly six years, we can finally focus all of our efforts on our educational mission and servicing the members of our esteemed Association,” said ANA Executive Director Larry Shepherd.

The settlement ends a long legal saga that began in July 2005 when Cipoletti filed suit against former ANA employees and a former ANA vendor. Cipoletti was dismissed as Executive Director of the ANA for cause on Oct. 15, 2007, and the lawsuit against the former ANA employees was resolved in July, 2008.

Cipoletti filed an arbitration case seeking additional payment under his employment contract. In May 2009 an arbitrator held that Cipoletti was terminated for cause and that he breached his fiduciary duties to the ANA. In July, 2009 the arbitrator issued a second decision that Cipoletti pay $53,550.26 to cover the expenses of arbitration.

In Sept. 2009 a Judge confirmed both of the arbitrator’s decisions. Cipoletti then appealed the Judge’s ruling on the arbitration case.

The most recent settlement resolves all pending lawsuits.

The YN Corner

by Pascal Brock

Welcome to the ~~YN Corner~~ a column designed for the SCNA Young Numismatist (YN). If you have an item you would like discussed let me know at SCNA ~~YN Corner~~, PO Box 693, Lugoff, SC 29078 or send me an email at psbrock@truvista.net. If you have something of interest write me a paragraph or 2 about it and send it to me and we will print it in the Scanner. Looking forward to hearing from all the YN's.

Do I have any YN's reading this column? I've been writing this column for several months but I have yet to hear from any YN's. So, if you want the column to continue send me an e-mail with a question or send me an e-mail about your collection. I am waiting to hear from you.

If you are planning to exhibit at this fall's SCNA Convention it is time to start planning your exhibit. Exhibiting is a great way to meet new people and to learn more about your collection. You can do a competitive exhibit that is judged and an award and/or prize is given to the best exhibit. Or, you can do a non-competitive exhibit that is not judged and no prizes are awarded. If you would like to learn more about how to create and exhibit for the SCNA Convention check the following site:

<http://www.money.org/Content/NavigationMenu/NumismaticEvents/ConventionExhibit/default.htm>

Also watch the Scanner for an exhibit entry form.

When you start collecting it is probably best to start with a narrow focus so you don't get frustrated and disorganized. Learn about one aspect of coin collecting at a time.

For example, you can:

- * collect a specific denomination such as nickels, pennies, etc. (The 50 State Quarters is a great starting place for kids)
- * collect coins from a specific country (America, Germany, etc.)
- * collect coins that all came from the same mint
- * collect coins of a specific age (coins minted before 1950 or 1940, etc.)
- * collect coins from your birth year or a grandparent's birth year
- * collect coins you find interesting

Until next time keep collecting.

CONVENTION NOTES

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED!

SCNA extends its sincere appreciation to the volunteers who worked at the 2010 Convention. We need volunteers again this year from October 27 through October 30, 2011, at the Carolina First Center in Greenville, SC. People are needed to help set up and take down the showroom, run errands during the show, and work at the registration table during the show.

Anyone interested in helping at the show should contact:

SCNA MEMBER CLUB NEWS

CAMDEN COIN CLUB

The club held its annual banquet on January 25. During the banquet officers for 2011 were installed. All attending club members and their wives had an enjoyable social evening and a delicious meal.

The Club is working on its spring show rescheduled for May 21, 2011, at the Camden Recreation Dept. on Hwy. #1, South, in Camden, SC.

Camden Spring Coin Show

On Saturday, May 21, 2011, the Camden Coin Club will hold its annual Spring Coin Show at the Camden Recreation Dept. on Hwy. #1, South, in Camden, SC. The coin show will be open from 8 am to 4:30 pm. Admission and parking are free. The public is invited for buying, selling, trading or just general interest in coins, paper money, and stamps. The Bourse Chairman is LoRan Ross. From 10 am to 2 pm, an hourly door prize drawing is held for registered visitors who are present at the time of the drawing. Part of the proceeds from the show goes to Kershaw County Charities. The Camden Coin Club would like to thank dealers and guests who participated in our previous shows. The success of the 2010 shows made it possible for the Club to donate $250 to the Kershaw County Animal Shelter and $250 to the Community Medical Clinic of Kershaw County. The Camden Coin Club is a non-profit organization dedicated to the promotion and the advancement of the hobby of coin collecting in Kershaw County and the state of South Carolina. To learn more about the show and coin collecting visit: www.sc-na.org or www.coinshows.com.

Four club members who gave Show-and-Tells in February (L to R): Rick Owen, junior member Austin Kuhl, Chuck Braun, and Jim Barry. (Photo by Helen Barry)

At the March 3, 2011 regular meeting new officers were elected for our fiscal year of April 2011- March 2012. Incumbents, President Steve Kuhl, Secretary Jim Mullaney, Treasurer Sharon Smoot and Sergeant-at-Arms, Glenn Sanders were re-elected. Joining them as Vice President is newly elected Patricia James.

The last few months' programs were: "Odds & Ends, The Non-State Quarters of 2009" by Todd Starbuck, "Small Size Mexican Banknotes" by Arno Safran and a DVD on Hobo Nickel Carvers.

Each month several members presented interesting Show-and-Tells.

Our next show will be held Saturday, September 10 at the Odell Weeks Activity Center, Whiskey Road, Aiken, SC from 9 am- 4 pm. Contact: Steve Kuhl, 1461 Toolebeck Road, Aiken, SC 29803, 803-649-5576, cell 803-645-3506.

MYRTLE BEACH COIN CLUB

Security has been a topic of discussion at the Myrtle Beach Coin Club meeting in early 2011. This includes security at the meeting place and individual safety. In response to this discussion the club amended its bylaws and created the office of Sgt. at Arms. The club is reviewing a number of actions to improve security. A committee has made a number of recommendations which the membership is evaluating.

In other news, on March 1 the club elected officers for the coming year. They are:

Rick Ciano	President
Bob Ahlquist	Vice President
Beth Frisbee	Secretary
Ashley Benton	Treasurer
Joe Bartomeo	Sgt. at Arms

Four of the Officers are new, with Ashley Benton serving a second consecutive term. The officers took their new positions on March 15.

Through March 15 the club added 11 new members in 2011, including two Young Numismatists and two members in one family.

The club, named the SCNA “Coin Club of the Year” in 2008, meets in the Grand Strand Senior Center, 1268 21st Ave, Myrtle Beach, SC on the 1st and 3rd Tuesdays of each month at 6:30 PM, all year. Meetings feature discussions of coins and other numismatic material, a raffle, door prizes (all who attend are eligible), presentations, an auction and refreshments. Guests are encouraged to attend. For more information, call (843) 903-1223 or email mbcoinclub@yahoo.com.

AUGUSTA COIN CLUB

SCNA welcomes its newest member club, the Augusta Coin Club (ACC) of Georgia. ACC is a not-for-profit club located in scenic Augusta, Georgia, dedicated to disseminating knowledge about coin collecting.

ACC also promotes fellowship among the club members, and sponsors regional coin shows, dinners and events where dealers and the public can buy, sell and trade coins, bills, tokens, and related numismatic items. ACC strongly encourages and supports the participation of children, or Young Numismatists, in all its activities.

ACC has deep-rooted tradition of serving the community and donating funds, books and other items to libraries and charitable organizations. ACC looks forward to taking on new members to help the organization grow.

The current officers are:

Steve Nix, President
Glenn Sanders, First Vice President
Howard Black, Second Vice President
Xavier Pique, Treasurer
John Attaway, Secretary

ACC meets the 3rd Thursday of the month at 7 PM at America's Best Value Inn, Washington Road, Augusta, GA. The annual dues are $12.

For further information about ACC, contact:

Glenn Sanders

CSA & OBSOLETE NOTES ARE MY BUSINESS!!

I have been a full-time dealer in Confederate and obsolete currency for over 30 years. I've helped many collectors assemble complete CSA type sets as well as find rare varieties. I've also helped hundreds of collectors with their obsolete note interests from rare to common. My catalogs are well known in both the dealer and collector fields for their reference value. If you are a serious collector of CSA notes, bonds or obsolete bank notes, I can offer you the following:

1. Thousands of bank notes in the Confederate and obsolete areas.
2. Accurate descriptions, grading and fair prices.
3. Reliable dealings with prompt and friendly service.
4. The knowledge and research capabilities to properly attribute these notes.
5. A want list service that has helped many find notes which they could not locate.
6. Top prices when buying one note or an entire collection. If you are selling, I want to buy your notes!
7. The respect and integrity of dealings that are well known in the hobby.
8. Representation to bid for clients at major auctions.
9. Paying finder's fees on collections referred to me.
10. Appraisal services for reasonable fees.
11. Institutional and museum services for note authentication and valuations.
12. Strong cash decisions and immediate payment for your material.

If you collect, I offer my latest edition 60 page catalog for $10.00, refundable on first order. It features one of the largest CSA note inventories available, an extensive obsolete and scrip section, uncut sheets of notes, U.S. fractional notes, a Continental and colonial section and a reference book section. Whether you are buying or selling, I would be pleased to have you contact me.
