SCNA OBJECTIVE

SCNA is dedicated to the promotion and advancement of numismatics in all its dimensions...convinced that the hobby has great potential for enriching lives of those who earnestly seek its gifts. Our principal means for this is the SCANNER, the official publication, sponsored awards which seek to promote and reward excellence in many areas of hobby activity; and the annual Convention...which provides without charge to the collector, investor and general public...South Carolina's best program of numismatic education and services and the finest opportunity for buying and selling numismatic items.

Note from the Editor:

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Greetings to SCNA Members!

The 2011, 39th SCNA Convention has rented all 100 tables. Anyone still interested in tables should contact Tony Chibbaro to be placed on the waiting list. This should be another outstanding show. Do not miss it!

The SCNA Executive Committee has voted to raise the life membership fee from $150 to $200 effective January 1, 2012. If you are not already a life member now is a great time to upgrade before the cost goes up. Regular annual membership fees remain the same for now- $10 for adults, $1 for youth.

The Convention Awards Breakfast is now open and free to all SCNA members in good standing. This Sunday morning event is for the Association to present its awards, recognize outstanding service, and installation of Officers. Anyone planning to attend needs to contact Erik Larsen or Pascal Brock as soon as possible to reserve a seat. Space is limited to 100 persons.

Tickets for the SCNA fundraiser are still available. Each ticket is a $10 donation and there are only 400 tickets available. The prizes are gold and silver coins. Tickets are available from any SCNA officer and the drawing will be held during the Convention in October.

This will be my last President's Message as I will not be running for reelection. I want to thank all SCNA Officers and the SCNA members for making my years of service so memorable. I look forward to seeing you at one of the great shows around the state or at the Convention.

Greg Stowers
President, SCNA

A Replica of a $20 Love Token

By Ernie Turnes

The March 2010 issue of the American Numismatic Association's The Numismatist published an article about the Confederate submarine C.S.S. H. L. Hunley. The story included information about an 1860 gold $20 coin that had stopped a bullet at the Battle of Shiloh and saved the life of Confederate Lieutenant George E. Dixon., who carried it in his pocket. The Double Eagle was a gift from his girlfriend. He had the bent coin engraved SHILOH./APRIL 6th/1862/ MY LIFE PRESERVER/ G.E.D.

In 1995 the coin was found in the raising of the Hunley, discovered outside the Charleston Harbor. Lt. Dixon had command of the Hunley when it sank.

I have a copy of that bent $20 coin. A fellow member in the Myrtle Beach Coin Club put it in the club auction on May 17. The opening bid was $1 and I won it at $5. The replica, also bent, is very well done and, of course, has "COPY" inconspicuously noted on the engraved side.

The "coin" raised several question. Who made it? How many were produced? Why? What is the market for such a piece? I bought it because it is a replica of a love token (my first replica).

I did a little research and discovered the coin on the "Friends of the Hunley" web page. It is but one of several collectibles sold to raise money for the restoration of the sub (the first to ever sink an enemy war ship). It costs $10.

This one may qualify as the most unusual piece in my love token collection.

SCNA PATCH HISTORY

(Third in a series of three articles.)

By Robert W. Ross III, LM #3

Over the history of the South Carolina Numismatic Association's existence, there have been three emissions of membership patches.

The ORIGINAL PATCH, distinguishable by its dark green background, was designed by George Crocker, SCNA's first President, and was placed on the distinctive green jackets worn by the officers at the first convention in 1973. To my knowledge, only one original green coat with the original patch on it still exists. Further, I know of only one patch that was removed from an original coat that still exists. I would be pleased to learn of any others.

The SECOND PATCH, with a lighter color green background, like the five-color patch that was printed on high quality paper for the SCanner cover design for years, and thus , became known as the SCanner patch," was produced in 1985 and was offered for sale to members at $5.00 each and for however they pleased.

The THIRD PATCH, the "SHEHEEN PATCH," so-called because Austin M. Sheheen Jr. had them made in September, 1987, is a very close copy of the original with minor design differences apparent only upon close scrutiny. The pattern for this patch was made by computer from the original. The initial order for 50 patches, placed some four years previously, was not executed due to the high cost estimate of $400 for the pattern and $10 for each patch for a total of $900 or $18 per patch.

As a favor to Austin, the producer cut the total cost to $250 or $5.00 per patch. Actually, 58 patches were delivered, including the sample. Austin paid for the order himself and donated the 50 patches plus a check for $100 to SCNA to begin an Endowment Fund for the organization with the patches being sold at $10 each to add to the fund.

President Repeals 1099 Reporting

The National Health Care Law contained a little known requirement for businesses to report purchases over $600 during a year's time. This reporting requirement extended all the way to the numismatic community and its dealers.

After much discussion and negotiations, the U.S. House of Representatives and Senate finally compromised on an acceptable version for the repeal of the 1099 provision. The bill was sent to the President who approved the cancelling of the problematic reporting requirement.

Georgia Exhibit Best in Show

Mack Martin captured the Best of Show Exhibit Award at the Central States Numismatic Society convention held in the Chicago suburb of Rosemont, Ill., in April 2011.

He was honored at the CSNS Awards Breakfast April 30 with a plaque by Exhibits Chair Fran Lockwood.

Martin's award-winning exhibit was titled, "State of Georgia Treasury Notes Treasury Certificates: 1861-1865."

Mr. Martin, a member of SCNA, has exhibited numerous award-winning exhibits around the nation. His exhibits have also won top awards at the past several SCNA Conventions.

The YN Corner

by Pascal Brock

Welcome to the YN Corner a column designed for the SCNA Young Numismatist (YN). If you have an item you would like discussed let me know at SCNA YN Corner, PO Box 693, Lugoff, SC 29078 or send me an email at psbrock@truvista.net. If you have something of interest write me a paragraph or 2 about it and send it to me and we will print it in the Scanner. Looking forward to hearing from all the YN's.

It is not too late to exhibit at this fall's SCNA Convention. Exhibiting is a great way to meet new people and to learn more about your collection. You can do a competitive exhibit that is judged and an award and/or prize is given to the best exhibit(s). Or, you can do a non-competitive exhibit that is not judged (but no prizes are awarded). There is no cost to exhibit but you must be a SCNA member. (The SCNA YN membership fee is only $1.) Free cases for your exhibit are also available. The exhibit entry form is in this copy of the Scanner.

Do not forget to attend the YN Program at this year's Convention on Saturday, October 29 at 11:00 am. Attendance is free and you will enjoy the presentation. While you are at the Convention be sure to stop at the YN table.

If you cannot attend this year's Convention in Greenville, SC, but want to learn more about collecting money (numismatics) perhaps you can take a little time and visit some of the following web sites:

1. USMINT.COM (Be sure to look for the Kids Page and the Educators Page.)
2. MONEY.ORG (This is the website for the American Numismatic Association.)
3. SC-NA.ORG (The website for the South Carolina Numismatic Association. It contains information about SCNA and coin clubs and coin shows in South Carolina.)

If you would like to learn more about how to create and exhibit your collection check the following site:

MYRTLE BEACH COIN CLUB

Myrtle Beach Coin Club meetings continue to feature a topic each night. Recent subjects have been a quiz, a talk on elongated coins, the War of Northern Aggression and discussions on South Carolina numismatics and on commemoratives. To enhance security and to facilitate conversations, members now wear name tags, given out when they sign in. The club also elected a new Treasurer, Jim Toon, because a new job has taken the previous Treasurer out of town on meeting nights. Again this year, members were able to guess the price of an ounce of silver at year’s end. Guesses on gold were also added to this year’s contest. It’s been encouraging to see young collectors join the club and regularly attend meetings. We attempt to give each of them numismatic items at each meeting (a reward for attending and a “bribe” to get them back!) They seem to enjoy the meetings. Club membership is now close to 100.

The club, named the SCNA “Coin Club of the Year” in 2008, meets in the Grand Strand Senior Center, 1268 21st Ave, Myrtle Beach, SC on the 1st and 3rd Tuesdays of each month at 6:30 PM, all year. Meetings feature discussions of coins and other numismatic material, a raffle, door prizes (all who attend are eligible), presentations, an auction and refreshments. Guests are encouraged to attend. For more information, call (843) 903-1223 or email mbcoinclub@yahoo.com.

ACC strongly encourages and supports the participation of children, or Young Numismatists, in all its activities.

ACC has deep-rooted tradition of serving the community and donating funds, books and other items to libraries and charitable organizations. ACC looks forward to taking on new members to help the organization grow.
