Bourse Chairman's Message

Greetings to all Fellow Collectors,

Welcome to the 46th Annual South Carolina Numismatic Coin Show and Convention. We hope that your visit will be both enjoyable and profitable. We have a large and diversified variety of numismatic dealers here, with a wide range of coins, medals, tokens, and paper money for sale. I am confident that everyone can find something for their collections, whether your budget is large or small. If you are here to sell coins, I am sure you will find several dealers interested in purchasing your collection. ANACS will be on site providing free assistance and advice on grading and authenticating your coins and has special reduced pricing for submissions available only at this convention.

Tony Chibbaro invested a great many years expanding and improving this show and organization as your SCNA Bourse Chairman and SCNA President. His efforts set the standard for State level Numismatic Conventions and leaves me with some really big shoes to fill. Please join me by personally thanking Tony for his efforts. You can find Tony at Table #28.

As many of you may know, the Baltimore show is also occurring this weekend. We were 'encouraged' to change the dates for our show. In the end, we decided that we would not change our show dates because this is not our show, this is your show and that you, our collectors, fully expect this show to occur, just as it has for many years, the last full weekend of October. As expected, we lost a few dealers to Baltimore. More importantly, it has enabled us to bring in an even more diversified group of dealers and exhibitors for the Southeast's Best Coin Show.

Resultantly, you will see several new dealers and exhibitors (to the SCNA) this year. Please join us in extending a special thanks and welcome to these dealers, exhibitors and organizations. In addition to the U.S. Mint returning to the SCNA Convention, we are very proud to bring to you the Bechtler Mint, the Jenkins Collection exhibit, The Atlanta Federal Reserve Museum, The South Carolina Archives and History exhibit, The Society of Paper Money Collectors as well as several new-to-the SCNA numismatic dealers. If you want to try your luck, you can even pan for gold and gemstones.

We endeavor each year to have an educational aspect to our convention, and hope that you will take some time to check out our exhibit program or the educational seminars on Saturday. (See elsewhere in this program for times and places.) Our Young Numismatist program is very popular and is open to all young collectors free of charge. Please bring your Young Numismatists to the YN table #11. Remember, you are building memories for and with them. Additionally, a Boy Scouts Merit Badge program will take place at 10:00 AM on Saturday.

The South Carolina Numismatic Association has designed a new YN gift certificate that is based on the 1855 $6 Bank of Clarendon, NC. These unique gift certificates will be changed every year using another famous note from the past. This year's note was designed by Will Gragg Webmaster/YN Coordinator. The idea behind the notes is to make something unique and collectible for the youth and public. Single notes will be awarded to the YN Exhibit program winners and other YN program participants. These notes may be used like cash at the Dealers tables by the YN's at the 2018 SCNA convention. Dealers who accept these from YNs can redeem them at the front desk, or keep them as a souvenir. Three note proof sheets will be available at the front desk for $10.00 each. A limited number of proof sheets will be available for the public to purchase. All proceeds from the sales of the proof sheets will benefit the SCNA YN programs. Thank you for your support of our youth in the hobby.

The United States Mint has returned to the SCNA. This speaks volumes about our organization and especially about the collectors in this region. The U.S. Mint offers a vast array of numismatic products and is well worth the visit.

Please remember this is your show, if there is anything our staff can do for you while you are here, or if you have any recommendations for improvement, please let someone at the front desk know or talk to me personally at the Lowcountry Coins Table #414. We hope you enjoy your visit and look forward to seeing you again next year and for many years to come.

Best Regards,

Bill Latour
 SCNA Bourse Chairman

Getting our Youth involved in coin collecting?

There are a lot of things about coin collecting for kids to find interesting. Just give them a coin collecting book/guide and cardboard folder for their birthday, Christmas or as we do in our shop at Gilbert Coin Exchange, for A's and B's on their report card.

You could buy your child mixed rolls of wheat cents or buffalo nickels to put in the folders then take the time to show your child how place the proper coin in the proper place of the folder. The National Park Quarter program is another great idea. These coins can be found easily in everyday use. Just get a folder and show your child how to place the proper coin in the proper place.

Some other coins that work well for the beginner are Wheat Cents, Indian Head Cents, Mercury Dimes, Jefferson Nickels and Roosevelt Dimes. Once you and your child decide on what type of coin(s) they want to collect just obtain the corresponding coin folders or albums to organize and display the coins in as they are sorted. Most importantly.....HAVE FUN!
