

Chad Hawk

With over 20 years of experience in the Collectibles Grading and Authentication Industry, Chad has had the privilege of working with some of the world's most prestigious collections, developing expert grading teams, and witnessing key moments in the collectibles industry history. His career has taken him across the globe, where he has authenticated and graded over $100 million in collectible currency, helping to establish trust and integrity in the marketplace. Chad played a pivotal role in helping to build PMG, one the largest paper money grading companies in the world, leading business development efforts and refining authentication standards that have shaped the industry. Prior to founding GCC, he was with PMG for over 20 years where he was Vice President and head of grading. Chad engineered and conducted grader training both in the US and overseas and has helped write and develop many of the standards used today.

